Hemlock Inn provides the central village location where you can be a part of it all. The original structure of this lovely Inn was built over an artesian spring regarded as being the beginning of the New River.

At Hemlock Inn suites are available with fully equipped kitchens. Non-smoking, non allergenic rooms are available as well as laundry services. All rooms feature private baths, cable T.V. with remotes, air conditioning, phone services, microwave ovens, and refrigerators.

If you wish to have your own easy paced cookout, take advantage of the picnic area and its outdoor grills.

Public tennis courts are within easy walking distance as is the beautiful public park. Directly adjacent to the Hemlock Inn is the South Marke Shop Complex with its many small shops that feature unique, quality products and services.

Within easy driving distance are many interesting and exciting attractions to experience. Visit Tweetsie Railroad and Park, Grandfather Mountain, and the famous "Blowing Rock" for which the village was named. An unhurried drive on the Blue Ridge Parkway will reveal beautiful mountain vistas around every curve.

Peak season is May first through October thirty-first.
